DR. JOHN BULL.

SOMETHING
NEW AND VALUABLE.

The most powerful King on the face of the globe now reigns supreme in the American Republic. The power of the crowned heads of Europe sinks into insignificance when compared to that of our American King.

European Kings employ the power vested in them to increase the riches of the rich and to reduce to greater misery and degradation the poor and dependent. Our American King goes forth with equal willingness to the lordly mansion and humble cabin, ready alike to administer relief and to offer health and happiness to the lofty and lowly, the rich and the poor.

DR. JOHN BULL'S

GREAT AMERICAN KING.

In the Tenth Volume of the World, and the greatest blessing ever offered to afflicted humanity; the greatest blessing, the Doctor can say, is at your command. You have only to use this magical remedy. All those who still suffer, and will not accept the proffered Balm, deserve not the pity of their fellow-men.

This wonderful medicine, during the brief period since its introduction, has cured thousands of the most obstinate and deadly diseases, and made life a charm to many who heretofore regarded it only as a painful and miserable existence.

To the winds with all ailments, Embrocations, Pain Killers and Pain Extractors, and let millions of glad tongues proclaim the merits of the great "American King of Pain," a preparation composed solely of vegetable and roots, produced by America's own rich and bounteous soil.

We would ask the Ladies, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence to its benefit, recommend it, speak well and often of it, and see that it is used by their afflicted neighbors.

The Ladies are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, &c., and for many internal afflictions. It is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing in the public thousands of certificates of cures performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to test; and Dr. Bull stakes his well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask you the Rheumatism or Gout; these are not pleasant companions, and we know that you would like to drive them away as soon as possible, then use

"BULL'S KING OF PAIN."

Would you be cured almost instantly of Bowel Complaint, Dysentery, Summer Complaint, Cholera Morbus, Cramp Cholera, Head Ache, Tooth or any other ache or pain, the remedy is simple and the cure certain.

USE THE GREAT KING OF PAIN.

Would you have your Sores, Swellings, Cuts, Burns, Scalds, Bruises, or any other wounds healed, use it, use it, use it.

MAGICAL KING OF PAIN.

Would you be cured of King's Evil, Rheumatism, Bone Throat, Neuralgia, Stomach Complaint, Tetanus, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Itch of Venereal Insects, Chapped Hands, and all other Sores, either dry or running, we say again and again, your remedy is Dr. John Bull's

"KING OF PAIN."

Would you be cured of King's Evil, Cancer, Tumors, Scrophulous, or any disease of the skin caused by impure blood, then use Dr. John Bull's Sarsaparilla internally and the King of Pain externally, nothing can be more certain than a speedy and efficient cure.

GEORGETOWN COLLEGE,
KENTUCKY.

THIS Institution occupies a high rank among Western Colleges. Its Library, Cabinet, Museum, and apparatus are unsurpassed. Its literary course is the same as that of Yale College, while its scientific course embraces all the best portions of the course at West Point.

For young men designed for practical business there is a course of three years in which a thorough knowledge is imparted in agricultural Chemistry, Physiology, Zoology, Practical Engineering, Principles of Commerce, and Book Keeping. In this practical feature the College is believed to be unequalled. Its high aim is to furnish American scholars, and American business men. The rapidly increasing number of Students in attendance is proof of its high rank and efficiency.

This seat of learning is no mere experiment, whose permanence is doubtful, and whose diploma is therefore of uncertain value. It is in a position to exercise and maintain a wholesome discipline without the fear of extinguishing its lights, and to require of its students every thing scholarly and manly in their deportment. It has boarding arrangements adapted to all classes of students; and so adjusted as to avoid the dangers inseparable from the practice of overcrowding 150 or 200 young men into one building. Students for the ministry can board for about $40 per College year.

Others of known good moral habits, for about $65 or 70; while those who may prefer boarding in private families can do so at from $80 to 100. No student is allowed to board in any family but such as the Faculty shall approve; and a strict and kind supervision is exercised by the faculty over every student where-ever he may board.

The scholastic year is divided into two sessions. The first commences on the third Monday in September; the second, on the first Monday in February.

COMMENCEMENT DAY

Occurs on the last Thursday in June. Tuition $20 per session.

The annual catalogue may be had by application to the President, Rev. D. R. Campbell, L. L. D. Sec'y of the Board of Trustees.

CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE:The Great Purifier of the Blood!

Not a particle of Mercury in it. AN INFALLIBLE REMEDY for Scrophula, King's Evil, Rheumatism, Obsolete Cutaneous Eruptions, Pimples or Pustules on the Face, Blotches, Boils, Chronic Sore Eyes, Ring Worm or Tetter, Scald Head, Enlargement and Pain of the Bones and Joints, Stomach Ulcers, Syphilitic Disorders, Lumbago, Spinal Complaints, and all Diseases arising from an injudicious use of Mercury, Impudence in Life, or Impurity of the Blood.

This valuable Medicine, which has become celebrated for the number of extraordinary cures effected through its agency, has induced the proprietors, at the urgent request of their friends, to offer it to the public, which they do with the utmost confidence in its virtues and wonderful curative properties. The following certificates, selected from a large number, are, however, stronger testimony than the mere word of the proprietors; and are all from gentlemen well known in their localities, and of the highest respectability, many of them now residing in the city of Richmond, Virginia.

F. BOYDEN, Esq., of the Exchange Hotel, Richmond, known every where, says he has seen the Medicine called CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE administered in over a hundred cases in nearly all the diseases for which it is recommended, with the most astonishing good results. He says it is the most extraordinary medicine he has ever seen.

AGUE AND FEVER—GREAT CURE.—I hereby certify, that for three years I had Ague and Fever of the most violent description. I had several Physicians, took large quantities of Quinine, Mercury, and I believe all the Tonics advertised, but all without any permanent relief. At last I tried CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE, two bottles of which effectually cured me, and I am happy to say I have had neither Chills or Fevers since. I consider it the best Tonic in the world, and the only medicine that ever reached my case.

JOHN LONGDEN.

Beaver Dam, near Richmond, Va.

C. B. LUCK, Esq., now in the city of Richmond, and for many years in the Post Office,

has such confidence in the astonishing efficiency of CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE, that he has bought upwards of 50 bottles, which he has given away to the afflicted. Mr. Luck says he has never known it to fail when taken according to directions.

DR. MINGE, a practicing Physician, and formerly of the City Hotel, in the city of Richmond, says he has witnessed in a number of

instances the effects of CARTER'S SPANISH MIX-TURE which were most truly surprising. He says in a case of Consumption, dependent on the Liver, the good effects were wonderful indeed.

SAMUEL M. DRINKER, of the firm of Drinker & Morris, Richmond, was cured of Liver complaint of 8 years standing, by the use of two bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture.

GREAT CURE OF SCROFULA.—The Editors of the Richmond Republican had a servant employed in their press room, cured of violent Scrophula, combined with Rheumatism, which entirely disabled him from work. Two bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture made a perfect cure of him, and the Editors, in a public notice, say they "cheerfully recommend it to all who are afflicted with any disease of the blood."

STILL ANOTHER CURE OF SCROFULA.—

I had a very valuable boy cured of Scrophula

by Carter's Spanish Mixture. I consider it a truly valuable medicine. JAMES M. TAY-LOR, Conductor on the R. F. & P. R. R. Co.,

Richmond, Va.

SALT RHEUM OF 20 YEARS STANDING

CURED!

Mr. JOHN THOMPSON, residing in the city of Richmond, was cured by three bottles

of Carter's Spanish Mixture, of Salt Rheum,

which he had nearly 20 years, and which all the physicians of the city could not cure. Mr.

Thompson is a well known merchant in the city of Richmond, Va., and his cure is most remarkable.

WM. A. MATTHEWS, of Richmond, Va.,

had a servant cured of Syphilis, in the worst form, by Carter's Spanish Mixture. He says

he cheerfully recommends it, and considers it

an invaluable medicine.

RICHARD E. WEST, of Richmond, was cured of Scrophula, and what Physicians called confirmed Consumption, by three bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture.

EDWARD BURTON, Commissioner of the Revenue, says he has seen the good effects of Carter's Spanish Mixture in a number of Syphilitic cases, and says it is a perfect cure

for that horrible disease.

WM. G. HARWOOD, of Richmond, Va.,

cured of Old Sores and Ulcers, which disabled him from walking. Took a few bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture, and was enabled to walk without a crutch, in a short time permanently cured.

death a tremendous blow—the will avoid of it, but stumbled in the snow, and in a few moments was yards behind.

The distance from home was now quickly shortening beneath the horse's hoofs, which continued to carry the sledge at full gallop, till the fear of an overturn became the source of fresh anxiety. Mart was quite aware by this time that these were no common lazy wolves he had to deal with, but sharp set determined brats, to whom man or beast would be alike welcome. These were not the animals to be deterred by the sight of man's dwelling, as is usually the case, and there was an ugly, vast of wide open space between the outskirts of the forest and his home, which he looked to with real apprehension.

"They were now at the very edge of the wood—the road became open—the wolves gained on every side—the horse bounded furiously forward, caught the sledge against the stump of a tree—it overturned—was swept away at a tremendous pace, and Mart was left alone in the snow. In a moment a heavy claw had slit the throat and down the front of his sheepskin—it was well Anno's wrappings lay so thick beneath. He threw off the brute and rose—his hatchet had been jerked out of his hand in the fall—he cast a desperate glance around, but saw it not. The horses were now almost out of sight, two of the wolves were close to the defenceless man, and the two others, deserting the animal, were bounding back to him. Mart faced the foremost, he could do no more, and in an instant was surrounded.

"Here we must leave him, however cruel it may seem. Meanwhile the two women were as usual, expecting them anxiously at home—for Mart was late. Anno was sitting beneath the pine-wood candle at the spinning wheel. Liso had risen from her bed and gone into the smaller chamber, especially devoted to her. Old Karria Pois was lying before the stove fast asleep. Of a sudden the dog pricked up his ears, listened, rose—ran to the door and whined—then, returned to Anno, wagged his tail, ran back, and whining again, scratched at the door. Karria Pois usually gave signal of Mart's approach though not in so urgent a way, and Anno opened the door expecting to see her husband. The dog dashed furiously out, but no sign of Mart appeared. The young wife went out into the piercing air—saw and heard nothing, and was slowly turning in, when a sound caught her ear—it was the sound of hoofs striking full and sharp upon the ground.

So had Mart never approached before. But there was no time for wonder, for the next moment the horse galloped up to the door and stopped. Anno saw instantly that something had happened—the animal was dripping with the foam and trembling all over—the sledge was reversed, and, above all, Mart was not there.

"Anno was but the girl still; she called quick grandmother—the old woman did not answer—the inner room; Liso was standing motionless with her face turned to the door. There was no light save from the little snowed-up window; but Anno saw enough to know that she stood in prayer. "Oh! Jummali! (God) said the poor girl to herself, hear her! and leaving her undisturbed, she ran again out of the house, gave one look at the trembling horse and then all trembling herself, began to retrace the jagged track in which it had come.

"We must now return to Mart, whom we have left in a frightful position. He knew what it was to put forth his strength in games and wrestling matches, and it was such as shoulder to shoulder and muscle to muscle, few could withstand. But it was nothing new against the heavy weight—the vice like teeth; the rending grasp that held him down on every side. For a few seconds the desperate defence of a man to whom life is sweet, and such a death so horrible, shook off the pitiless assailants; but his own blood had dyed the snow and the sight of it seemed to turn ferociously in fury. The blood hounds closed again upon him, they pulled him down.

"People say there is no time to think in sudden dangers—they have never known one. There are more thoughts struck from the mind in one moment's collision with sudden and desperate peril than in days of fearless security. The sweet of this earth—the home that lay so near—the mystery of Heaven, swept over poor Mart's mind; nay, even particulars found time to intrude. He thought how Anno and Liso would watch through the night—how his mangled remains would lie all in the morning—Anno's despair—the village lament; he thought of all this and more, and knew himself in the jaws of hungry wolves! Then these foul, lurid eyes glared over him; the tightening of the throat followed, and he thought all was over. Still he struggled to release his arms—the grasp on the throat was so focating him—his senses reeled—when on a sudden—dash came another animal—hard-breathing along, threw itself into the midst with one sharp howl, and fastened upon the chief assailant. The wolves relaxed their fury for an instant; Mart reeled giddily to his feet, and recognized his brave dog. For a second he stood stunned and bewildered; when he saw one wolf retreating, and all three attacking the dauntless Karri Pois. He turned to help him, and a bright object caught his eye; it was his hatchet lying on the snow within arm's length of his last struggle. Mart snatched it up, and was now himself again. Blood was dripping from him, but his limbs were uninjured, and furious were the strokes he dealt.

"One wolf soon lay dead at his feet; the other cowered, and retreated, spilling its blood as it went, and held off, skulking round; and now Mart poured his whole fury on the great monster, which held Karria Pois in its striding grasp as he had done his master. It was no easy task to release the dog. The hatchet rung on the wolf's skull, rattled on his ribs, and laid bare the gaunt back-bone; but the dog's own body interrupted any mortal wound, and the wolf seemed to feel no other. Poor Karria Pois's case was desperate; his legs were all drawn together, protecting the very parts he sought to wound, when suddenly he stretched himself out with some fresh agony, and the hatchet was hurled deep in the wolf's throat. Many more fierce strokes were needed before life was extinct; and as Mart rose, a hand on his shoulder startled him, and his wife fell into his bosom.

ARRIVAL OF THE AMERICA.
NEW YORK, July 9.—The Washington, from Bremen, is below Halifax.

The America arrived with dates to the 24th.

News was received that the Turks have beaten the Russians, forcing them to retreat across the Danube, and to raise siege Silistria.

The Turks on the 15th sailed out of Silistria and attacked the Russians in trenches; a severe battle took place, ending in the total discomfiture of the Russians, who were pursued by the Turks and fled across the Danube and destroyed the Russian siege works. It is considered this victory will change the face of the campaign. A conspiracy to assassinate Napoleon was discovered in the south of France; a hundred and fifty arrests were made.

The papers announced on the 17th ult., that Paskievitch received orders from St. Petersburg to retire.

The Paris Monitor announces on the 13th of June that the Turks made a tremendous sortie from Silistria, attacked the Russians with great fury. Gen. Schellert received a wound rendering amputation of the left leg necessary.

Prince Gortschakoff received a contusion.

The Russians had sprung three mines before Silistria without damage, and were prepared to mount the expected breach when they were attacked on three sides by the Turks. A fearful slaughter ensued. The Russians fled. The Turkish brigade from Shumla, succeeded in entering Silistria on the 13th.

The Russians were employed in burying the dead on the 14th and 15th.

Three Russian Generals were wounded. The garrison of Ratschuk went over to the island of Mokan and destroyed all the Russian works there.

General Grotenhielm's division said to have defeated two Turkish brigades with 6,000 cavalry and 40 guns.

The Turks have driven the Russians Turtukri, which they occupied with a strong garrison.

General Ludes was amongst the wounded at Silistria.

It is said there is much disunion exists amongst the Russian Generals at headquarters; probably induced by the ill success.

Austria's summons, that Russia should evacuate the principalities, had caused the utmost irritation at St. Petersburg. The answer is under discussion. Prince Paskievitch, who was on the road to Jassy, was ordered to return and take Silistria at any cost.

We have advices from Turin to the 15th—Judge Gabby, who was charged with assassination of the Duke of Parma, who was mortally wounded with a poignard in the streets of Parma, on the 12th of June.

We have advices from Madrid to June the 15th. Gen. Orlando and Messina were arrested on charge of harboring Gen. O'Connell. Messina escaped. Orlando was sent to Galico; the despatches from Vienna state that the convention was concluded at Constantinople between Austria and the Porte relative to the Danubian principalities, the conditions being that Russia voluntarily retires.

Austrian troops will enter the principalities and form a defense between Russia and Turkey. If Russia refuses to retire, Austria will take such steps as appear necessary to insure her doing so.

The Russians were surprised and beaten by the Circassians at Bariel Pass.

The death of Mussa Pach of Silistria, is confirmed.

The latest telegraphic despatch states that at the conference at Trespach it was decided that Prussia would not formally declare war against Russia, but would place a portion of the Prussian army under the orders of the Emperor of Austria.

Gen. Dumendarry succeeded the chief command of the Russian forces on the Danube, in consequence of the wounds received by Gen. Ludes, who had his jaw carried away by a cannon ball.

At telegraphic dispatch says the English fleet numbers upwards of forty vessels is signalled off Constat at Silistria.

Gortschakoff was severely wounded. General Schellert had his leg shot off, and two other Generals were killed. The carnage among the Russians was dreadful, and they retired fighting across the Danube. Pursuing their advantage, the Turks crossed an arm of the river, seized the Isle of Hope and blew up the Russian siege works thereon. The Turks then erected temporary batteries on the Bulgarian bank of the river, before the north face of the fortress. The Russian battalions, east and west of Silistria, immediately retreated in good order across the river, destroying their bridges.

This victory was gained entirely by the Turks.

The Russians at latest dates were in the vicinity of Kalarajah, waiting reinforcements and orders.

The whole plan of operations at Bulgaria must now be altered.

It is surmised that Paskievitch will order the whole of the Russians to fall back on Jassy.

Ere this the Russians probably have relinquished all positions on the left bank of the Danube excepting foris.

At Korova, Malechin and Usakatscha apprehension of the advance of the Balkans for the present is at an end.

Russians accounts from Bucharist admit the suspension of operations against Silistria, but say the siege has not been finally raised.

The Russians have evacuated Mogueili and Sinnagi.

Five thousand Turks have occupied Turtukri.

It is reported, but doubted, that the garrison at Ratschuk had crossed to Osingao, killed 400 Russians and taken 9 guns.

Admirals Dundas and Hamelen issued a circular announcing the close by blockade of the mouth of the mouth of the Danube.

Most of the fleet are cruising off Sebastopol, and six or eight ships are at Varna.

The English ships Obin and Vulture landed 150 men at Kalya.

Karleny was attacked by the Russians, and they were driven back to their ships with a loss of 3 officers 3 seamen killed 2 officers and 14 seamen wounded, and 25 taken prisoners.

Admiral Napier sent four ships against Karleny. All the Russians pilots were sent into the interior.

The British, under Admiral Plumridge, have taken formal possession of Fornea, unopposed.

GREEN.—We have advices from Musonghi to June 14th. The insurrectionists totally extinct at Eperus, but the Turkish troops were marching to Unesary, where the insurrectionists refuse to submit.

The U. S. ships Cumberland and Saranac were at Pioraus.

A report is current that Russia had again made overtures through Austria; but the terms are said to be the immediate retirement of the allies from Turkey, which can scarcely be regarded as true.

A rumor is again afloat in the English papers that the Czar will abdicate. An is also reported to be sick, and for that alleged reason did not attend the cabinet council on the 19th.

In case on evasive answer comes from Russia Austria will forward its final ultimatum, demanding a categorical answer within eight days.

It is stated that Napoleon intimated to the Austrian government that the French will interfere and suppress any revolutionary movements in Hungary or Italy while the Austrian troops were engaged against the Russians. Similar declarations are expected from England.

The Russian loan of 16,000,000 roubles, five per cent, is negotiating at Hamburg at 87.

General Intelligence.

A dispatch from Vienna asserts positively that Russia has out of high respect and consideration for Austria, consented to vacate the Principalities, and was withdrawing all the forces beyond the Pruth.

Lord John Russell officially announced in the British Parliament that the siege of Silistria had been raised, and that the advance guard of the French and English had reached Prava, and Omar Pasha was advancing with his whole force to the Danube.

From the Baltic and Black Sea, or Asia, no news had been received for a week.

The Greek insurrection had been totally quelled.

The minor German States accept the Austro-Prussian note.

Brazil had notified France and England of her neutrality.

To Miss  W.

Must I lose thee? wilt thou leave me? Leave this heart to break alone; Wilt thou then so soon deceive me And wreck a heart that's all thy own.

Oh! to dear girl a spell has bound me In vain I seek to break the chain; For memory clinging still around me Brings thy dear image back again.

Must I these eyes no more behold thee, As they did when late we met? Must this heart then cease to hold thee? Must I learn then to forget?

Forget! ah! no! in vain in vain, I may try those ties to sever, Those of those too full of pain Have bade us part forever.

Stamping Ground, July 8th.

For the Herald.

Mr. FRENCH:

Dear Sir:—In your excellent paper of the 6th inst., you unintentionally, however, gave the credit of refreshments furnished the "Georgetown Guards," on the 4th inst., at the Georgetown Hotel, to Messrs. Jones & Barkeley and to Mr. Pullen's to the proprietor. Such was not the case; those clever gentlemen, Messrs. Hastings and McClure of the Hotel, kindly furnished us with refreshments, at the Hotel Messrs. Fitzgerald, Sr., and Ashurst bountifully supplied us with refreshments on the occasion. "Honor to whom honor is due!"

Messrs. Hastings and McClure, of the Hotel; also, Messrs. Fitzgerald and Ashurst, will please accept our thanks which are hereby tendered, for favors on the 4th. And last, though, not least we are under renewed obligations to yourself for the very flattering notice you have taken of us since our organization.

Our thanks are due to the citizens generally, for their liberality, extended toward us.

Respectfully yours,

A. GUARD.

SENSELESS.—A worthy clergyman in Yorkshire, England, lately deceased, bequeathed in his will a considerable property to his only daughter, on the subsequent conditions.—First, that she did not enter into the state of matrimony without the consent of his two executors, or their representatives. Secondly, that she dressed with greater decency than she had hitherto been accustomed to do.—The testator's words were: "But as my daughter Ann—hath not attended to my admonitions, respecting the filthy and lewd custom of dressing with naked elbows, my will is, that in case she persists so gross a violation of female decency, the whole property devised by means aforesaid, and intended as a provision for her future life, shall go to the eldest son of my sister, Caroline—and his heirs lawfully begotten. To those who may say this restriction is severe, I answer, that an indecent display of personal navilments in women is a certain indication of intellectual depravity."

ELECTION TICKETS.

The county candidates would consult their own interests, by giving their orders at an early day, for election tickets. A general ticket is liable to the objection that every man's name cannot go first; whereas every individual ordering tickets, may have the names of the various candidates for the county offices placed in the order that suits him best. First come first served; we shall prepare a ticket from the names found in our columns, which we will furnish to candidates who have been announced in our columns at the rate of $1 per hundred and 75 cents for each additional hundred; those who have not been announced in our columns will be charged $2 00 for the first hundred and $1 for each subsequent hundred. Send in your orders early, gentlemen, if you do not wish to be delayed or disappointed. As defeated candidates are apt to be very forgetful after the election, and as a large number of the candidates must inevitably be defeated, the cash must accompany all orders for tickets to ensure their being printed.

TAKE NOTICE.

The owners of the following jobs are requested to call at the captain's office and settle for the same, or their accounts and jobs will be advertised and sold on behalf of whom it may concern.

1. A lot of "Books & Stationary" labels, printed for a gentleman who has absconded from these diggings to parts unknown, about the era of Pookiesian! Price $10.

Also, a lot of "contract" blanks, printed for a gentleman of the vicinity, price $2 50.

Also A. G. of Robinson Jones' Post office would do well to forward the cash for certain cards printed and delivered on a positive promise, which promise has never been complied with.

This, we presume, will do for a commencement; but we have a few more of the same sort of delinquencies, to which we will pay due attention from time to time, as opportunity presents and necessity requires, unless, taking the hint, our delinquent patrons call at the captain's office and settle.

REVOLUTION IN TEXAS.

It will be remembered, that, in the beginning of her revolution, in 1836, Texas offered large bounties in land to volunteers to serve in her armies.

We can now offer, to the survivors, and heirs of those who thus served, the recovery of all the lands promised by the Government of Texas.—We are also prepared to prosecute all Texas land claims regardless of date or character, whether SPANISH, MEXICAN, or AMERICAN BOUNTY, SCRIPT, or HEADRIGHT. Having complete access to the Master rolls, Maps, Records, and other documents in the Public Offices at Austin city, we enjoy superior advantages for investigations of all kinds in regard to claims. We will give particular attention to the recovery of ex parte illegality sold, for taxes or otherwise, and to estates which have suffered from inattention or mismanagement of agents or administrators.

To persons having LAND CERTIFICATES for LOCATION, we can offer particular inducements. Our thorough and intimate knowledge of the vacant lands and surveys of the state, obtained from personal inspection, insures the most favorable locations, and perfect titles.

LONG EXPERIENCE, and close attention to the LAND SYSTEM and an accurate knowledge of the different classes of titles, together with the large amount of land registered in our office for sale, enables us to furnish prompt and reliable information, and assistance, to persons desiring good homes, and to afford superior advantages to those wishing to make safe and PROFITABLE INVESTMENTS.

We are offering for SALE LANDS in every part of the state—improved and unimproved, of every variety, and in tracts to suit purchasers; also town and city lots—in short every kind of real estate on the most favorable terms.

To persons having land in Texas for sale, we would say, that we keep books, in which are registered descriptions (furnished by the owners, or obtained by personal inspection) and full exhibits of title &c., of all tracts to be sold, thus furnishing a cheap and effective mode of advertisement. If desired, we will examine land in any part of the state, ascertain its value, and report faithfully. Registering for one dollar.

We invite the attention of Merchants, farmers, and individuals to our office as furnishing a speedy and effective mode of collecting.

By activity, energy, and fidelity to the interests of our employers we hope to merit the confidence of the business public.

July 6, 1854-17-10

Our postal affairs are in a sad confusion, owing in part, as we understand, to new arrangements which went into operation on the 1st of July. Our mail facilities have been materially reduced, and even those which we have appear to be managed with less promptitude and regularity than we have been accustomed to. If we cannot be restored to a daily mail between this town and Cincinnati, we trust that the contractors will exercise due diligence for the present state of affairs cannot long continue without eliciting remonstrances, and provoking "curses loud and deep," from this news loving community.

A correspondent at Turkey Foot, furnishes the following local items: Henry Wash, a negro man, on going to his stable on Thursday last, found in his horse trough a boy child, supposed to be about two years old, and with it a bundle of clothing; the child appears to be crippled in the back and one arm; it is a bright copper color. The said Wash lives on the Turkey Foot and Oxford road, one mile from the former and four miles from the latter; he is desirous that the owner of said child should come forward, prove property, pay charges and take him away. It would appear from the foregoing facts that the father of this interesting little responsibility is not estimate-at-a-bush and that the anxious mother does not "know that he is out!"

Death has been busy at the home of our childhood within the last two weeks; two to whom we were united by kindred blood and sincere affection have "passed away to the land of the dead," and we have been called upon to mourn their change of state. Yet we sorrow not as those without hope for the one (dying at a ripe age, honored by his friends and fellows in death as in life), we have reason to believe that he had a well grounded hope of attaining to a "mansion in the skies," whilst the other beloved object of our affections, was of the class of whom our Lord and Saviour has said:—Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven!"

Time and distance has neither checked or chilled the warm current of our heart's best affections; hence our sincerest sympathies are with the bereaved ones who bewail their irreparable loss.

Our list of patrons at Stamping Ground are renowned for their pecuniary punctuality; as well for many other commendable virtues. We have not, and never had there, a single delinquent on our list. Last week, however, we flattered ourselves that we had caught one tripping in an unmistakable manner and acted accordingly. When lo and behold! the apparent delinquency was clearly proved to have been only a misunderstanding, by the prompt receipt of a friendly explanatory epistle, accompanied with the deficient dimes. Honor to whom honor is due; if all our patrons were as punctual in their payments as those at Stamping Ground, we could afford to publish a sheet, at less cost, that would do honor to the county of Scott. To hail from Stamping Ground, judging from our experience, is, or ought to be a letter of credit to every man, woman and child "to the manor born!"

Preserved Peaches.
A small lot of this delightful fruit, put up in cans, and retaining its original exquisite flavor, has just been received by Ed. Applegate, who will dispose of them very low to close out consignment. We submitted a can of this delicious fruit to the judgment of our "better half," and she asserts that they would tickle the palate of the most fastidious peach epicurean. Give Ed. a call if you wish to secure a share of these and other luxuries and necessities with which his establishment on Main street abounds.

Dan Rice's Circus.
Will be here shortly in accordance with the announcement which appears in another column. If we may rely upon ocular evidence Dan Rice far excels in the variety and interest of the performances in his Circus all his competitors in the business; he is the Napoleon of the Arena, and those who visit him will probably declare with the Queen of Sheba, "the half has not been told."

On Saturday and Sunday last we had some glorious showers after the long, hot dry spell of weather, which, doubtless will have a fine effect upon agricultural interests—animal as well as vegetable life was greatly revived by these refreshing showers.

A communication from one of the "Guards," in another column, corrects some errors into which we inadvertently fell in an article with reference to the fourth of July celebration in Georgetown.

LITTLE EAGLE.

We were in this vicinity on Saturday last, and, in company with about 200 of the "sovereigns" enjoyed the Bargo, "wheat bread and chicken fixens, corn bread and common doings," and the eloquence so liberally prepared for the occasion. 'Twas a merry crowd, and with a trivial exception, nothing occurred to mar the harmony and good feeling of the large assemblage, or render its proceedings otherwise than pleasant and orderly. A number of the candidates were present, and not a little were we entertained with some of the efforts at stump oratory by these modest "lovers of the dear people."

Judge Fennell and Thomas C. Kelly, Esq., candidates for the office of County Judge first demanded the attention of the large and highly respectable audience. The Judge was evidently very popular in this region; during his remarks receiving loud and warm manifestations of approval; many of his friends affirming, and one or two of his opponents admitting, that he would carry the precinct by two or three to one. During his speech of about an hour he was exceedingly facetious and quite happy in some of his good natured hits at his competitor.

Mr. Kelly occupied much less time; did not attempt a reply to his opponent's remarks; but placed himself on the same platform with Judge Fennell with reference to the license question; said he had, since coming out, examined the question; that he endorsed the action of Judge Fennell, and that there was no issue between them save that they both aspired to the office of County Judge. Mr. Kelly in a plain, manly and dignified manner set forth what he conceived to be his claims to the office, and was listened to with most respectful attention, but no marked manifestation of applause, by the people. Both gentlemen defended themselves briefly against some frivolous charges that had been brought against them, but as they apparently had but little weight with the meeting, and none with us, we forbore to introduce them in our brief and imperfect report of the proceedings. We were happy to see that the best feeling was maintained by the two gentlemen throughout the discussion, and trust that it will so continue until the end.

The candidates for Sheriff next addressed the meeting and here we regret to say, considerable bad feeling was exhibited by some of the parties, growing out of old differences. Messrs. Scruggs, Glinn and Bradford were quite eloquent in defence of their claims; our friend Thompson was there, but too unwell to speak. Bradford and Scruggs will be the contending nags at Eagle; as an orator Billy has rather the advantage of Mitch.; but they both made right clever, practical, common sense speeches, and an occasional flash of Billy's dry humor elicited the broad grins of the crowd. We must confess that our sympathies were somewhat enlisted for Billy until Messrs. Scruggs and Glinn gave him some jocular and good natured digs under the fifth rib, which brought down the house at Billy's expense. Major Glinn's speech, the bulk of which did credit to his head and heart, was very well received until he touched on some old matters between himself and Squire Holland; some interruption here took place and angry feeling was exhibited by the friends of both parties, but the feeling was quickly quelled by the interference and persuasion of Judge Fennell, Dr. Hall and other influential gentlemen, and Major Glinn concluded his remarks, without further exhibition of feeling on either side.

After this the candidates for Jailor who were present, to wit: Messrs. Page, Top pass, Young, and Stevens, made exceedingly witty speeches to the people—that is, if brevity be the soul of wit! as regards their respective prospects for office it was more difficult to ascertain; indeed we were not very anxious on this point, for we have recently come to the conclusion, after painful experience and observation, that it is best to have as little as possible to do with Jay-birds, Jackalls and Jailors.

Although the author of lines to Mary has failed to comply with one of our requirements concerning anonymous productions, we have concluded for the nonce to waive said requirement in favor of the lady so poetically discoursed to in "thoughts that breathe and words that burn," by publishing the lines next week; they arrived too late for insertion in this week's paper.

Postage.—The rates provided for in the bill which passed the House Representatives on Thursday, are 5 cts. under 3,000 miles, and 10 cts. over 3,000 miles. We trust the Senate will reject this measure, and if any change in postage is made, it will be a reduction rather than an increase of rates.

We are indebted to our esteemed friend, F. C. McCalla, for a copy of the "Friend of China," a small sized sheet, bearing the English coat of arms, and published at Victoria, China, semi-weekly, at the low price of $16 per annum. The price of advertising is about the same as that of the United States papers. This little sheet is quite a curiosity in its way. There is something very "old foggyish" in its prime appearance, large, coarse type, thick linen paper, &c. It is crowded with advertisements and commercial matter, the news department is "stale, flat and unprofitable," and there is a singular paucity of editorial. After diligent and persevering search we were unable to discover either the name of its publisher or editor. One would suppose, judging from the appearance of this sheet, that in China there is ample room and verge for the exercise of the enterprise of "Young America."

The voters of old Scott are reminded of the fact that B. T. Thompson, if elected Sheriff, will have Steven Gano, of Eagle as his deputy. They are both very clever gentlemen, and well qualified for the discharge of the duties of a Sheriff and his deputy.

One of the best modes of checking the belligerent spirit of dogs and puppies is to administer the water cure system in the form of a douch! We were sorely tempted to try the experiment the other day, while observing the bickering of a crowd of little urchins, including some of our own, upon the streets of our usually quiet town.

A negro man was found dead near the residence of Winslow Robinson on Friday last. He had been missed some three or four days, and is supposed to have come to his death by becoming overheated, in driving cattle. He was a free negro; although his body was in a state of decomposition when found, it was decently interred by Mr. R. aided by his neighbors.

A friend of ours, who sometimes coquets with the Muses desires us to publish the following recipe for Cholera and flux, said to be the best every discovered—as he has written it. We have no doubt that the recipe is good; but we can hardly say as much for the composition. In accordance however with the direction of the talented author, we publish verbatim, letteratum and punctuatum!—Ed.

A CHALLENGE.—Mr. Wm. J. BRADLEY, of Fayette county, makes the following proposition through the columns of the Lexington Statesman:

I will trot Pilot, Jr., against any stallion that has made a season in Kentucky this year, for $1,000 a side, $500 forfeit, at either two, three, or four mile heats in harness, the acceptor of the challenge having the right to name either of those distances. The race to come off over the Lexington Association Course, on the 11th day of October next, and to be governed by the rules of the New York Trotting club. The proposition to remain open until the 20th of August.

MOR AT RIPLEY, OHIO.—We find the following telegraphic dispatch in the Cincinnati Enquirer of Tuesday last:

RIPLEY, O., Monday, June 26.
A temperance meeting was held in the street Saturday evening near a drinking house, and during the speaking, some rotten eggs were thrown from the house at the crowd, upon which some rocks were returned, and the temperance men then rushed upon the house and rifled it of its contents, whisky, beer, &c., which, with the jugs and bottles were thrown in the street.

The mob then visited all the liquor shops in town, and compelled the proprietors to consent to give up the traffic in cases where any resistance was made, the houses were assaulted. Two or three were injured, but none were killed. The mob numbered about three hundred, including those who went to look on.

A wagon load of new wheat was sold in Hickman Fulton county June 24th at $1 per bushel. Eighty cents is now the high price offered in that market.

DAN RICE'S CIRCUS.
We are authorized by the agent of this Company to make the following alterations in the dates of performances, as shown by the bills, to wit:—At Lexington on Monday, the 21th, at Versailles on Tuesday, the 25th; at Frankfort, on Wednesday, the 26th; at Georgetown on Thursday, the 27th; and at Cynthiana on Friday the 28th.

J. M. SHEPARD, Esq.
At the ensuing August election it devolves on the citizens of Georgetown, to select a suitable person for Police Judge.

In our opinion there should attach certain qualifications to whomsoever may fill the office which are indispensable. He should be free from all bias on any and all subjects, whether political, religious or moral.

He must be of uncompromising integrity. Sufficiently learned in the law. And in short he should come into office without any semblance of identification with factions or projects, nor in any wise committed to pledges.

Looking upon yourself as possessing in an eminent degree, both the legal ability and conscientious rectitude, desirable, and knowing the unquestionable and unimpeachable conservative position which you occupy on all subjects, we wish you to consent that your name be presented to the citizens of the corporation in connection with this office, which you have once so ably and satisfactorily filled.

MANY VOTERS.
I am authorized to announce McK. ROBERTSON a candidate for Assessor at the next August election. I need the office; if elected I will discharge the duty between the citizens and Uncle Sam, right in every particular to the very best of my abilities. I pledge myself to you fellow citizens to be sober and attentive to my business for five years, if God spare me that long. Yours, &c.

Mc. K. ROBERTSON.
July 13, 1854-18 to*

We are authorized to announce W. M. HOLDING a DEPENDANT candidate for the office of Jailor of Scott County, at the ensuing election in August.
July 13, 1854-18 to*

Our obituary column this morning announces the death of Edward Hinkley, Esq., for many years past a prominent member of the Baltimore bar. Mr. Hinkley was a gentleman of highly cultivated attainments and was greatly esteemed in the community for his probity and moral worth. Upon the announcement of his death before the various courts in session yesterday these bodies immediately adjourned in respect to his memory.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—The House passed a number of amendments to the General appropriation bill including appropriations for the completion of custom houses at various points, west and southwest. The House then defeated the bill; yeas 75; nays 82; adjourned.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Mr. Gillett presented the resolutions of the Legislature of Connecticut in the subject of slavery; censuring Mr. Lowry for his vote for the Nebraska bill, and repeal of the Missouri compromise. Mr. Lowry defended his course, and reviewed the legislation of the majority of Connecticut Legislature on the subject of slavery. He accepts the vote of censure as the highest compliment, which could be paid him by that majority. Mr. Gillett responded warmly, condemning the fugitive slave law as clearly unconstitutional. Mr. Toucey responded.

CORRECTION.—The report which we published of five deaths having occurred at Georgetown, from Cholera, turns out to be incorrect. It was brought to Paris by a gentleman who said that he came direct from Georgetown, and we are at a loss to know what could have been his object in circulating it, unless it was true. The Herald contradicts the report, and French knows all about it.—Flag.

ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS.—The joint resolution fixing a day for the adjournment of Congress is still pending between the two Houses. The Senate having insisted upon its amendment (disagreed to by the House) providing for a recess from the 17th of July to the 15th of October, both houses have appointed committees of conference on the subject.

Since the above was in type, we see by the National Intelligencer that the committee of conference of the two Houses have reported, fixing on the 4th of August as the day for the adjournment of Congress, and both Houses promptly agreed to the report.

"YOUR PAPER DID NOT COME, SIR."
We recommend a careful perusal of the following plain statement, both to postmasters and subscribers.—It is from a paper called, "The Advance," published at Hernando, Mississippi:

"The uncertain delivery of papers at country post offices, is often the ground of complaint against publishers and editors. Many of the offices are poorly supplied with the conveniences of taking care of papers, no matter with what certainty they arrive. The papers are tumbl'd into a low pigeon hole, or piled upon the desk, box or barrel, to wait the call of subscribers, in the midst of boots, hats, bottles, horse-collars, and other coarse wares, which may be called for during the day by customers. Country postmasters in most cases, being engaged in some mercantile business, many papers find their way into some obscure corner, where they are hid for a time from the man eyes as completely as if buried in a mountain cave. In the meantime, the man comes for his paper, and it can't be found, of course, did not come. The indignant subscriber, consequently, abuses the rascally editor, and perhaps calls for pen ink, and paper, to write a letter of complaint about not sending his paper."

punctually, when, if the said paper were endowed with speech, it would cry out, 'here I am squeezed to death behind this box, or under this barrel.' We have often seen just such things at many country post offices elsewhere, as well as in this country. These remarks have no reference to any particular office, but are meant for all where they will apply."

We are indebted to Hon. Ben. Edwards Gray for a volume of maps accompanying Andrews' Report; also a Map of the Northern route of the Pacific railroad, for which favors we tender our thanks.

Tax relaxing heats of summer leave behind them a long train of evils. The most universal of these are general debility, one its sure attendant, lowness of spirits. For those we can recommend a speedy and unfailing cure, in the shape of Hoffman's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. It is, in our opinion, a medicine sui generis—unapproachable. It seems to reach the fountain head of the difficulty in the digestive organization, and thus to relieve the secretions and the blood of the malarious miasma, or the cause of disease. Its tonic properties give vigor to the membranes of the stomach, and promote the secretion of the gastric juice, which dissolves the food, while its cordial, soothing and reparative influence imparts general alacrity and strength to the action of the secretory and assimilatory organs. Such is our own experience of its effects, and we believe it is confirmed by the evidence of all who have tried it or had an opportunity of witnessing its operation. For sale by Dr. Jackson, 120 Arch street.

TWO OLD SORES, ULCERS, and all eruptions and diseases arising from an impure or depraved state of the blood. See the extraordinary cure of Mr. Wm. G. Harwood, a highly respectable citizen of Richmond Va., by Carter's Spanish Mixture. He had ulcers and sores of the worst description, and finally got so bad he was unable to walk, except on crutches. A few bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture, the great blood purifier, cured him, as it has cured hundreds of others who have suffered with rheumatism, bad effects of mercury, and poils and ulcers of the bones and joints. *See advertisement.

TO THOSE WHO INTEND PURCHASE:
I give a Piano this year, we have leave to say that between this and the 1st of August will be the most favorable time to do so, if price is any consideration. We shall leave our old and well known stand about that time, and wishing to reduce our stock as much as possible, for that purpose, will sell a first class Piano Forte at from 10 to 15 per cent. less than usual prices. It is generally known that our stock consists principally of Chickering's, Woodward & Brown's, T. Gilbert & Co's (with Zolian attachment) and J. Worcester's Pianos—instruments which cannot be surpassed, as numerous certificates, and the diplomas they have so often received for superiority over other instruments, must fully substantiate. Do not let this opportunity pass for obtaining a very fine Piano at a very low price; for we assure you such an advance as the present may never again be offered.

Guitars, Accordions, Violins, Brass Instruments, Sheet Music and Music Books on the same terms.

Last, not least, Geo. A. Prince & Co's superior Melodeons.

SONNET.

BY WM. H. CARPENTER.

Yea! Life's green leaves fall from me, one by one,
Silently fall, slow wavering through the air;
And soon, with tottering trunk, and branches
bare,
No more aspiring to the noonday sun
I shall lie prone; ere half my goal is won.
Who seeks support from failing strength,
Must share

The weakness, and the doom. Oh, Love
beware!
That which thou join would'st clasp I bid
thee shun.
Beware in time, and e'er thy tendrils loose;
Untwined thou slowly from me, fold by fold,
A d flourish, still sustained, by gradual dissolve.

Cling not to me, who cannot long uphold Myself. This calm, is but the true Twixt Life, and Death! The Spirit and the mould!

Ladies' Shirt Collars.

In the Home Journal, of a late date,
Mr. Willis discourses as follows:

Well, we had always thought gentlemen's shirt-bosoms to be a fascinating monopoly of embellishment which it was a wonder the ladies did not dispute with us. The shield of spotless linen on the bosom, with the studs of turquoises and an affectionate button hole at the proud arch
of the neck; and these tipped with a shirt-collar, classic in its starch, which sustained the head like a carressing vase;
there was a becomingness abstract, chronic, intrinsic, and undiminishable by change of fashion or age of the wearer
—which it was miraculous should continue from year to year as an enhancement only of male irresistibility. But it has gone over! Broadway beholds, at present, shirt-bosoms with petticoat continuations, and shirt-collars looking upward to curls and bonnets. The dress of colored silk parts at the waist, and lays off low around the shoulder to the back, presenting the snowy bust rounded and glittering in the sun; a conspicuousness
of display, by the way, as to quantity of linen, with which gentlemen can only compete by going without their waistcoats.

But how charmingly ladies wear (not our breeches, but) our shirts, after all!
How much more neatly they button them,
and how much more fully to the proportions of head and neck are adapted the small and modest lily cups of collars.
Really, those pearly edges of rosy cheeks rise away from the collar much more gracefully than our boarded jaw-bones and chins of peltry! Suppose we turn it over to woman as her charming monopoly? Male magnanimity, which has been found to be unequal to the sharing with women the "forked wear" above mentioned, might now redeem itself by giving up the shirt-collar to her lovelier chin altogether. While nothing could be more embellishing than a collar to a throat and chin without one, it must have been because we were slaves to look like women, that this article of dress,
so becoming only to effeminate lareness
of face, could have been so obstinately worn by us.

The Broadway petticoat, however, is between two astonishing of male wear —shirt collars above, and high heels below. The peepings in and out, upon the sidewalks, disclose the lovelier instep of ladies' walk and conversation at the present period, and not unfrequently, we must say. The difference of an actress' pace down the stage, or up it shows what a difference of dignity there is in placing the foot on a level with the heel upraised.
It marvelously qualifies the gait. We wonder that this, too, has been so long left to a male monopoly of wear.

Rouge, we are sorry to observe, accounts to an epidemic scarlatina, just now, in Broadway. It is not more "henious," that we know of, than other attempted embellishment of the person;
but being usually made a secret at home,
most probably, is put on without aid or consultation by the wearer herself, and is oftenest unskillfully done. In a new book which is quite the rage, in Paris
called "Ten Thorns for one Flower," there are two passages, with which we leave the ladies' fashions for the present:
"The savage paints his body to frighten
his enemies; the woman—not savage—
paints her face red and white to charm
her friends; which of the two is the most ridiculously tattooed."

"At the sea-shore, women bathe themselves, they are clothed with a long robe, which conceals them from their own looks; but in the evening you encounter, at the balls, those same women just sufficiently covered to cause the remark how little they are covered; so that they have the appearance of dressing to go to the bath, and of undressing to go to a ball."

A "DIPPER" CHAP.—The Cleveland
Plain Dealer relates the exploits of a boy
in that city:

Police officers attempted to arrest a boy named Mack, this morning, on the west side of the river for committing an assault and battery. He was pursued to the river, when he jumped into the water,
swam across and went under the wharf.
Here he divested himself of his clothing,
and when likely to be secured, took to the water again, and swam across, getting between a vessel and the wharf. Boats were stationed at both ends of the vessel,
and when the zealous officers were ready to take hold of him, he made another dive and escaped again. After diving and rising repeatedly, to evade his pursuers,
he finally got under the wharf beneath the lumber-yard and secreted himself where he could not be got at. He will quite likely escape, as he almost deserves
a reward for the laudable and fruitless chase
he gave the officers. He succeeded, before his final disappearance, in attracting a large and highly entertained audience.
We learn that the amphibious lad, after long exertions was finally captured.

READ THIS!—MEDICINE FOR THE RAFFIATED.—DR. HALL continues to be consulted at his Office, No. 1 Union
Block, west entrance, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.
By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. H. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them failed to cure the most alarming cases of.

GONORRHEA AND SYPHILIS.
Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, impotence, Scrofula, Gonorrhea, Ulcers, pains and distresses in the regions of Prostration, Inflammation of the bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses Bubones, Frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of diseases, are made to become as harmless
as the simplest ailments of a child.

SEMI-WEAKNESS.—Dr. H. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, inflicting
the unfortunate individual for either business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth are, weakness of the back and limbs, dizziness of the head, dimness of sight, palpitation of the heart, despondency, nervousness, derangement
of the digestive functions, symptoms of consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits,
evil forebodings, aversion of society, self distrust, irritability, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating marriage consult a physician of experience and skill and be at once restored to health and happiness.

AGUE AND FEVER cured in 24 hours,

SAVE YOUR ICE
AND DRINK PURE WATER.

THE season is again at hand when the use of Ice becomes indispensable to the comfort and health of every family.

The undersigned has for several years past been engaged in the manufacture of the above named article, and has devoted much time and labor in perfecting them. Knowing their great utility, economy and convenience, must bring them into very general use. They have become indispensable to every house-keeper.
The fact has been demonstrated beyond question, that they will preserve Ice longer than any of the devices which have been brought out for that purpose. The convenience of always having ICE WATER ready for drinking,
is fully appreciated by those who have used
this article.

The undersigned has larger and better facilities for manufacturing Water Coolers, than any establishment in the country, and is now prepared to supply them in any quantity.

To Merchants and others buying to sell a liberal discount is made. They can be packed and shipped to any part of the country with perfect safety.

SANDS'
SARSAPARILLA.
IN QUART BOTTLES.
For Purifying the Blood, and for the Cure of

Scrofula, Rheumatism, Stubborn Ulcers, Dyspepsia, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Erysipelas, Pimples, Bites, Mercurial Disorders, Cutaneous Eruptions, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Consumption, Female Complaints, General Debility, &c.

IN this preparation all the restorative properties of the root are concentrated in their utmost strength and efficacy; but while the Sarsaparilla Root forms an important part of its composition, it is at the same time, compounded with other vegetable remedies of great power, and it is in the peculiar combination and scientific manner of its preparation, that its remarkable success in the cure of disease depends. It acts simultaneously upon the stomach, the circulation and the bowels; and thus three processes, which are ordinarily the result of three different kinds of medicine, are carried on at the same time, through the instru-mentality of this one remedial agent which gently stimulates while it disinfests and expels
from the stomach and bowels all that is irritating, and at the same time restores their vigor and tone. Many other preparations imitate it in bearing the name Sarsaparilla, and in that their resemblance ends, being often prepared from worthless and inert roots, and of course possess no healing or curative properties, and patients in making choice of which they will use should take, no other, but that one entitled to its confidence, from the long list of cures
it has effected on living witnesses, whose testimonials and residence have been published,
and who are still bearing daily testimony to its worth

ASTONISHING CURE.
Patterson, N. Y. 20th, 1851
Messrs. A. B. & D. Sands: Gentlemen,— Having witnessed the most beneficial effects
from the use of your Sarsaparilla, it gives me pleasure to send you the following statement in regard to my son. In the spring of 1849 he took a severe cold, and after eight weeks of severe suffering the disease settled in his left leg and foot, which soon swelled to the utmost.
The swelling was lanced by his Physician,
and discharged most profusely, after that no less than eleven ulcers formed on the leg and foot at one time. We had five different Physicians, but none relieved him much; and the last winter found him so emaciated and low that he was unable to leave his bed suffering
the most excruciating pain. During this time the bone had become so much affected that piece after piece came out, of which he has now more than twenty-five preserved in a bottle, varying from one half to one and a half inches in length. We have given up all hopes of his recovery, but at this time we were induced to try your Sarsaparilla, and with its use his health and appetite began immediately to improve, and so rapid was the change that less than a dozen bottles effected a perfect cure.

With gratitude, I remain truly yours,
DARIUS BALLARD.

We the undersigned, neighbors of Mr. Ballard, cheerfully subscribe to the above statement.
